Chauncey Napoleon Brown Barnwell is a dedicated personal injury trial lawyer based in Atlanta, Georgia. He founded Brown Barnwell, PC, to assist and empower individuals involved in motor vehicle and trucking accidents. His practice focuses on securing full compensation for clients' pain, suffering, and inconvenience.

Chauncey earned his Juris Doctor degree from Atlanta's John Marshall Law School in 2011, where he was active in the Corporate Law Society, Criminal Law Society, and Sports and Entertainment Society. He also holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Coker College, completed in 2006.

He is admitted to practice law in the State Bar of Georgia, the U.S. District Courts for the Southern, Middle, and Northern Districts of Georgia, and the Supreme Court of Georgia.

Following in the entrepreneurial footsteps of his maternal great-grandfather, a large-scale planter in South Carolina's Low Country, and his paternal grandfather, who operated a successful construction business on Tybee Island, Georgia, Chauncey is dedicated to being a voice for the voiceless. He leverages his legal expertise to help underprivileged individuals across Georgia.

Under his leadership, Brown Barnwell, PC, prioritizes clients' needs, striving for full compensation for their pain, suffering, and inconvenience.
