Joe Ervin is a Partner at The Law Firm for Truck Safety. He limits his practice exclusively to cases involving commercial motor vehicle crashes and wrongful death. Joe holds a valid class “A” commercial driver's license, with endorsements for double/triple trailers and tankers.

A 2013 graduate of Gerry Spence Trial Lawyers College in Dubois, Wyoming, Joe is rated AV Preeminent™ by Martindale-Hubbell—the highest peer rating standard reflecting exceptional legal ability and ethical standards. He made history as one of the first nine attorneys nationwide to earn board certification in Truck Accident Law from the National Board of Trial Advocacy.

Joe has been recognized with the Roadway Safety Award from the American Association for Justice's (AAJ) Trucking Litigation Group for his commitment to improving highway safety. His leadership extends to serving as Co-Chair of the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys (ATAA) Safety Committee, where he helps advocate for improved safety standards within the trucking industry.

Joe's expertise is regularly sought after by peers, serving on the faculty of the American Association for Justice Advanced Trial Advocacy College: Litigating Truck Collision Cases in both 2015 and 2024. Joe maintains active membership in AAJ's Trucking Litigation Group and holds a position on the Board of Regents for the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys.

Fellow attorneys frequently retain Joe as a consultant and co-counsel on complex commercial truck cases. His proven track record includes successfully trying numerous cases against motor carriers and truck leasing companies, delivering justice for victims of commercial vehicle accidents.
