Stefano D. Portigliatti is a trial attorney specializing in catastrophic commercial motor vehicle cases. He has handled hundreds of trucking cases in several states with outstanding verdicts. Stefano was among the first 20 attorneys in the United States to become board certified in trucking litigation by the National Board of Trial Advocate. He is also board certified in civil trial by the Florida Bar. He is member of ABOTA and the International Society of Barristers, has been recognized by the National Trial Lawyers as a “Trucking Top 10”, leads the Florida Justice Association’s Trucking Committee, and serves on the Board of Regents of the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys.

Stefano dedicates a substantial portion of his time to teaching and sharing his knowledge and experience. This includes providing continuing legal education on topics related to trial and trucking litigation, and university level courses on human behavior, communication, and development. Stefano is the Vice President of SOAR Global Institute - a laboratory that researches human behavior and development.

Stefano is also the founder of truck.law™, which assists other plaintiffs’ attorneys handling trucking cases with forms, resources, and seminars available at www.truck.law.

Stefano is a musician and likes to golf, cook and travel with his wife, Brittany, and their two sons - Luca and Leonardo.
