Tom D'Amore is the Managing Owner of D'Amore Law Group in Portland, Oregon. An attorney for more than 30 years — and a former CPA with a Big 8 accounting firm — Tom is licensed to practice law in Oregon, Washington and California.

Tom's practice emphasizes serious and catastrophic personal injury, trucking litigation, wrongful death, Multi-District Litigation, class actions, insurance bad faith and other complex litigation at a local and national level. He is a board-certified civil trial specialist with the National Board of Trial Advocacy (NBTA). Tom is also board-certified as a trucking litigation specialist by the NBTA. Tom serves on the Board of the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys. Tom is well-known in the Pacific Northwest for representing victims of catastrophic truck injury cases and recently secured a $26.5 million dollar verdict in federal court in Pendleton, Oregon.

Tom has been selected by Super Lawyers and his peers as one of the Top 50 lawyers in Oregon for the past 15 years. Tom and D'Amore Law Group are AV Preeminent rated for the highest ethical standards and professional ability by Martindale-Hubbell. In July of 2023, Tom was awarded the David Shrager award which recognizes an American Association for Justice (AAJ) member who has demonstrated former AAJ President David Shrager's passion for the law and trial bar, and who has made an outstanding contribution to civil justice and the work of AAJ. Also, in 2020 Tom was named Trial Lawyer of the Year by the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association and in 2019 Public Justice nominated Tom and his co-counsel Trial Lawyer of the Year Finalists. In 2016, the Oregon Trial Lawyers Association (OTLA) awarded the Arthur H. Bryant Public Justice Award to Tom.

Tom is actively engaged in the plaintiff's trial bar. Tom is a Board of Governor, Executive Committee member, and former Budget, Audit, and Motor Vehicle Chair of the American Association for Justice (AAJ) in Washington, D.C. Tom is Past President of the Oregon Trial Lawyers Association.

Tom is a frequent speaker and presenter on topics related to trial practice and civil litigation. He has authored several articles as well as chapters in must-read resources for plaintiff's attorneys and continues to educate attorneys about strategies and tactics to securing justice for harmed families.

Tom volunteers his time to his community and serves on the Board of Good Deeds, a Portland-based non-profit.

Tom lives outside Portland, with his wife, Lisa, of 35 years. They have three adult children. Tom is an avid sports fan and spent years coaching youth sports. He enjoys spending time with his family, traveling, attending sporting events, exercising and playing basketball and softball.
